

*United States Attorney
Southern District of New York*

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE MARCH 10, 2003

PRESS ADVISORY AND CONFERENCE

Tomorrow, several top law enforcement officials, including JAMES B. COMEY, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Bronx District Attorney ROBERT T. JOHNSON, New York City Police Commissioner RAYMOND W. KELLY, WILLIAM McMAHON of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, will hold a news conference to announce a new law enforcement initiative aimed at reducing gun violence in the Bronx. Project Fed Up will move more gun cases into the federal system, where sentences are longer, and there is no parole. Those in attendance will also present and discuss a unique advertising campaign associated with Project Fed Up.

DATE: MARCH 11, 2003
TIME: 10:30 A.M.
PLACE: BUS STOP SHELTER
EAST 161ST STREET (SOUTH SIDE OF STREET) BETWEEN CONCOURSE VILLAGE EAST AND COURTLANDT AVENUE, THE BRONX

CONTACT: MARVIN SMILON, HERBERT HADAD. MICHAEL KULSTAD
(212) 637-2600